A BAD START

The traffic toll in Contra Costa in killed and injured is not a very auspicious beginning for the year 1935.

Thus far there has been one death and four persons injured in this immediate area.

A BLACK YEAR

According to figures given out by Coroner Aubrey Wilson, 53 people were killed by autos in this county in 1934, compared with 28 in the year 1933. This alarming increase should prove a warning to motorists, but whether it will or not yet remains to be seen.

TOLL IS MOUNTING

The coroner's report is very informative, although not assuring. From it we learn that 22 pedestrians were killed by automobiles in the year just ended, in comparison with two the previous year. Three autos tried conclusions with trains with the resultant death of three, the same number as in 1933. Ten people were projected into the water by their machines leaving the road while none suffered a traffic fatality from this cause the year before. Collisions accounted for eight deaths in 1934 as against seven in 1933. Three fatalities happened through crashes between autos and motorcycles in 1934 but none the previous annum. In addition one person met death through a fall from an auto and two from falls from trucks.

A REAL MENACE

Unfortunately most of the figures show a horrifying increase. These figures it should be borne in mind are for Contra Costa county alone, and perhaps fail to impress the mind with the seriousness of the problem and its magnitude. When the fact is brought to attention that more than a million people were either killed or injured in automobile accidents in the United States during the year 1934.

SPAN BOARD TO ACCEPT R.F.C. LOANS

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 4.—UP.—The California Toll Bridge Authority today voted acceptance of a Reconstruction Finance Corporation offer of a $10,000,000 loan to provide interurban service facilities across the San Francisco-Oakland bay bridge.

The move was made after attorneys for the bridge authority said that acceptance of the loan offer would constitute "earmarking" of the fund, or optional acceptance of the proposal.

Simultaneously Governor Merriam announced that he had instructed the toll bridge authority counsel to discuss terms of proposed railway contracts for the bridge with city attorneys of the communities involved.

"Also, because many of the items proposed in the railway contracts protested at yesterday's public meeting fall not within jurisdiction of the bridge authority but within the state railroad commission, I am directing that a transcript of the full proceedings of yesterday's meeting be given to the railroad commission with a request that such protests be investigated prior to the granting of necessary certificates of convenience and public necessity," the governor said.

The toll bridge authority also decided during the day that choice of an underpass or overpass approach to the bridge in Oakland will be determined by the majority desire of those concerned in the matter.

Jobs For Everyone Is Keynote of Roosevelt Talk To U.S. Congress

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—UP.—President Roosevelt told a cheering and enthusiastic Congress today that he proposed to give every able-bodied but destitute American a job, providing security for the family and home, and gave assurance that it could be done without endangering the government's credit.

Appearing in person before a joint session of the two Houses, the truck coated chief executive in his message on the state of the Nation said healthy strides out of the depression had already been made but added that the job was only partly completed.

TO ABANDON DOLE

He served notice of plans: 1. To abandon the dole system of relief and to liquidate gradually the FERA.

2. To provide old age and unemployment insurance and make a start toward benefits for children, mothers and other handicapped by tragedy, illness and other vicissitudes of life.

3. To study all emergency public works agencies into one compact, hard hitting unit.

MAIN OBJECTIVES

These, Mr. Roosevelt asserted, are the main objectives at the moment. Later in the session, he said, he would consult with Congress on other measures of national importance. In this group he listed:

1.—Consolidation of Federal regulatory administration over all forms of transportation.

2.—The renewal of clarification of the general purposes of the NIRA.

3.—Crime control.

4.—Legislation to restore "sound conditions" in the public utilities field "through abolition of the evil features of holding companies and gradual tapering off of Federal emergency credit activities."

Belgrano Urges Patman Measure

WATSONVILLE, Jan. 4.—UP.—Passage of the Patman bonus bill, providing immediate payment of the bonus, is advocated by the American Legion because of the value of the bill as a recovery and relief measure. Frank N. Belgrano, national commander of the Legion, told a special district meeting tonight.

Belgrano said the payment would not add to the national debt.

Approximately 1200 members attended the meeting. The new-elected national leader, touching on preparedness issues said the Legion does not foster war but is interested in guaranteeing the United States peace through an adequate preparedness program.

Local Girl Holds Air Mileage Record

Has any Richmond girl flown more than 280,000 miles? Unless she has, Miss Athia McMaster, of Richmond, can claim the air mileage record for members of her sex in this city. She is one of 100 air stewardesses employed on the New York-Chicago-Pacific coast, Chicago-Kansas City and the Vancouver-Seattle-San Diego passenger-mail express airways of United Air Lines, which created the innovation of stewardess service on air liners four years ago.

Duties of the stewardesses include collecting passengers' tickets and making out traffic reports for the particular flights, providing conversation and calling attention to points of interest along the route, serving luncheon aloft, providing reading material to the passengers, making night flying passengers comfortable for sleeping, and in other ways adding to the comfort of air transportation.

Mosquitos To Face War With Forces Of City

City Sanitary Inspector Herbert Blake Tuesday will begin his annual duties of making mosquitos more than unwelcome in this area.

With the help of 20 S.E.R.A. workers, Blake expects to spend more than 100 days abating the mosquito nuisance here.

Drainage ditches will be widened and deepened, Blake stated. In this manner breeding places for the pests will be eliminated.

The S.E.R.A. will furnish the workers, while the City of Richmond will supply the tools and equipment and supervising personnel.

Damon Pease Is Indicted For Murder

OAKLAND, Jan. 4.—UP.—Damon H. Pease, 23-year-old Antioch youth, was indicted on murder charges today by the Alameda county grand jury, which heard evidence linking Pease with the slaying of Hugh Malloch, young Berkeley service station attendant.

Pease also was indicted on robbery charges arising from holdup of the service station where Malloch was employed, two nights prior to Malloch's murder. George Black, 29, returned here from St. Louis with Pease, also was named in the robbery indictment.

The Antioch youth allegedly shot down the young University of California student when Malloch spotted a car he believed had been used in the station holdup and gave chase, running the suspected car to the curb.

Authority On Early History Of State, Dead

OAKLAND, Jan. 4.—UP.—Mrs. Nellie Vandegriff Sanchez, a sister of the late Robert Louis Stevenson and authority on early California history for the Knights of Columbus addressed a meeting of the Contra Costa Council K. C. in Memorial hall.

Mrs. Sanchez, 78 years old, had lived with her son, Louis Sanchez, in Berkeley and Oakland since 1902. She came to California when she was 19 years old, from Indianapolis, and engaged in newspaper work in San Francisco during the '70s. For many years she lived in Monterey, where she married Acilio Sanchez, member of an early Spanish family.

She was the author of two histories of the Spanish-Mexican era in California, a "Life of Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson," and "Spanish and Indian Place Names in California." She had translated many early California documents for the University of California.

Grant School Dads Club Has Meeting

Next Tuesday night the members of the club will hold basketball and volleyball games at the high school gymnasium. In February an athletic night program will be held.

EL CERRITO RESIDENT TO FACE COURT

Ered Sparks, 7321 Terrace Drive, El Cerrito, was held to answer to the superior court yesterday afternoon, when he appeared before police Judge A. G. Thompson in El Cerrito. Sparks is charged with arson.

The arrest and hearing of Sparks followed a fire at his home on the night of December 11 at 6:10 o'clock. A warrant for his arrest was sworn to by Fire Chief Ora Burnett of the El Cerrito fire department.

CHIEF TESTIFIES

Burnett was the star witness for the prosecution yesterday. He declared that upon arrival at the scene of the fire, Richard MacCarthy told him at the gate of Sparks' home and shouted, "My God! Get into the house! Sparks has set the place afire and committed suicide."

Burnett declared that he found the place so full of heating gas that he couldn't get into the house. "The fire apparatus had not arrived at that time and he did not have a gas mask. Finally he went into the kitchen of the home, found a sink, wet a handkerchief and placed it over his mouth. He then dropped through the smoke and gas trying to find Sparks, or his body. A search of the house failed to find him."

FOUND FIRES

Burnett declared that one fire was in the northwest room of the home and a second was in the basement. The fire department arrived and extinguished both blazes.

The chief declared that the fire in the basement appeared as if it had been set. The fire covered an area approximately 18 inches in diameter and had apparently been built by piling up paper and wood and coal on top of it. The wood, Burnett said, consisted of long sticks which had burned through.

Red Menace Is Flayed By K. C. Official Here

A warning against the rising menace of Communism was sounded last night when R. H. MacKenzie, of San Francisco, special agent for the 11 western states for the Knights of Columbus addressed a meeting of the Contra Costa Council K. C. in Memorial hall.

MacKenzie urged the Knights of Columbus to join with other organizations, especially the veterans, in combating the Reds.

Robert Rooney, master of the fourth degree for northern California, also addressed the gathering as did Ernest Woodfield, of San Pablo, first grand knight of the council and organizer of the local lodge.

William H. Lutz presided over the session.

Today's dividend disbursement brings the total cash dividends paid by Transamerica and its predecessors during the past 10 years to more than $112,000,000.

New Appointee Takes Place Of Harold Jacoby

The Steve Sanitary Board at a meeting Thursday night appointed Judge A. G. Thompson as attorney for the board to succeed Harold Jacoby who resigned to take up his new duties in Martinez as one of the deputies in the new district attorney's office.

There were many applicants for the place made vacant by Jacoby's resignation—Carl Nielson of Kensington; E. G. Palmer of Berkeley Park and Judge Thompson, the new appointee.

TO CLEAN CREEK

Rights to enter upon the property of the Duponts and the Munzen estate at the county line having been obtained the Steve Sanitary Board at its regular meeting Thursday night announced that Cerrito Creek will be cleaned and other sanitary work done as an S.E.R.A. project. Work will be started in the near future and will employ El Cerrito citizens.

The Board also announced that this year it will use the county assessment rolls instead of its own, thus saving the district an expenditure of about $500.

Crusade Starts To Break Grip Kingfish Long

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 4.—UP.—The oil industry took the lead tonight in a crusade against Senator Huey Long's dictatorship in Louisiana.

Standard Oil, largest taxpayer and best customer for Louisiana crude, discharged 900 employees from its Baton Rouge refinery, fulfilling its threat to withdraw from the state rather than submit to Long's "spite" tax of five cents a barrel on oil refining.

Opposition to Long spread in all directions. Society women took up the cudgel, with a demand that the United States Senate hear their charges of corruption against both Long and his colleague, Senator John H. Overton, whom he helped elect.

Business executives protested new taxes imposed on them to support the lavish state political machine. Persecuted municipal officers asked courts to intervene to preserve local rights. Hundreds of minor public officials were being thrown out of jobs as the Long organization entrenched ruthlessly.

LINDBERGH IDENTIFIED MAN'S VOICE

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Jan. 4.—UP.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh stared into the eyes of Bruno Richard Hauptmann today and swore it was the man who collected $20,000 as his price for the life and safety of a child that already was dead.

It was the most dramatic testimony that has been flung at the prisoner in the first three days of his trial for the murder of the Lindbergh baby.

HAUPTMANN IS CALM

But if Hauptmann realized that he didn't show it, all spectators in the hot courtroom seemed more interested in what Lindbergh was saying than did the man whose life is in the balance and who sat all day with his arms folded and a blank look on his face.

Attorney General David T. Wilentz was questioning Lindbergh about the events of the clear, starry night when he and Dr. John F. Condon drove up to St. Raymond's cemetery in the Borough of the Bronx, New York City, and handed $50,000 ransom over the hedge to a man who stood among the tombstones.

Lindbergh sat in a parky car diagonally across the street from the cemetery hedge. He felt there was hope at last that his child was to be returned. Beside him was a box containing $70,000, which he was willing to pay for the baby's safety. He salvaged $20,000 of that when Condon bargained with the kidnaper to reduce the ransom. Condon got out of the car and walked toward the cemetery. Lindbergh testified.

HEARD VOICE

"What happened then?" asked Wilentz.

"Dr. Condon walked to the center of the street," Lindbergh replied. "When he got there I heard a voice in a heavy, foreign accent say 'hey, doktor!'"

Berkeley Man Is Injured In Cerrito Crash

One man was slightly injured in an automobile accident last night on San Pablo avenue near Fell street.

Elmer Bloom of 2825 Eighth street, Berkeley, suffered a slight cut on his knee. He was taken to a Richmond hospital for first aid treatment. His injury was not serious.

Bloom was riding with William Madrid, Gladys Mardow and Marjorie Nelson, of Berkeley when Madrid's machine was involved in a collision with a car driven by Woodrow Snodgrass, of 614 Thirty-first street, Richmond.

Madrid's machine overturned. The occupants turned the car back upon its four wheels and drove to the hospital.

Patrolman Howard Thulia of the El Cerrito police investigated the crash.

Los Angeles Man Gets State Job

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 4.—UP.—Governor Frank F. Merriam today appointed Roy S. Stockton of Los Angeles as chief of state employment agencies in the department of public relations.

Stockton succeeds W. A. Grantfield in the $5,000 per year position. Le Roy Brice, previously selected for the position, failed to meet qualifications for the office.

DAMAGE IN CITY SLIGHT; ALAMEDA HIT

A northern gale whipped the bay region and Richmond yesterday, bringing with it a record rainfall.

More than two inches of rain were recorded at the Standard Oil Tank Farm meteorological station during the storm, which started on Thursday afternoon. A total of 2.21 inches had fallen up to five o'clock last night. At 7 o'clock yesterday morning, 1.33 inches were recorded and from 7 o'clock in the morning until five o'clock in the evening, .82 inches were recorded. The rain ceased shortly after eight P. M.

LOTS FLOODED

And with the downpour came numerous complaints of flooded basements and overflowing storm drains. Several sections of the city were almost inundated by the rain. Lots were flooded and on Macdonald avenue, especially at Tenth, Eleventh and Twelfth streets, overflowing drains caused puddles of water to form, forcing pedestrians to wade across the street.

For the first time this year the storm forced the El Cerrito Kennel Club to suspend its racing program. The track was completely flooded by the heavy rain. It was announced, however, that the racing will be resumed this evening, providing there is not another heavy storm.

CREWS KEPT BUSY

A crew of city men were kept occupied salvaging the afternoon and evening cleaning out drains, sewers, the worst "flood" was reported on San Pablo avenue between Macdonald and the Santa Fe tracks. Quite a large pool of water formed on the street stalling several automobiles. Another spot where swimming was good for the ducks was at Fourth and Cutting boulevard. Water several inches deep covered the boulevard.

The weather man last night reported that one may expect clearing weather today.

ALAMEDA FLOOD-SWEPT

While Richmond's damage was comparatively small, the city of Alameda was heavily hit by com-

Anglim Speaks At Joint Meet Of Two Clubs

Clifford Anglim, regional director of the PHA, was speaker yesterday at the joint meeting of the Richmond Lions and Rotary club held at the Hotel Sargento. Anglim pointed out that the act provided for home rebuilding for the neighborhood of homes and for mortgage financing on a scale never before attempted.

Brice Corrie was chairman of the day and Al Furrer led community singing. The Lions orchestra provided music.

Announcement was made by Dr. George Boehmer, president of the Richmond Lions Club, of the meeting for discussion of a safety council, to be held in the city hall on the evening of January 16 and City Manager J. A. McVittie and James T. Nurbett were named by President Harry Chapman of Rotary to represent that club at the meeting.

Members of the two clubs were invited by Principal B. X. Tucker, president of the Men's Brotherhood of the First Presbyterian church, to be at the meeting of that club on next Tuesday evening in the church. The meeting will begin with a dinner at 6:15.

RAY ACTIS IS VICTOR OVER
JOHNNY MILER

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—UP—Ray Actis, 165, Richmond light-heavyweight scored his 27th knock out victory in 30 fights tonight when he stopped Johnny Miler, 174, Albus, Iowa, in the sixth round of a scheduled ten round bout at Dreamland auditorium.

Actis landed a hard right cross on Miler's jaw as the sixth round opened. Miler struggled to his feet after a count of six but he was so groggy Referee Edgie Burns stopped the fight.

The Iowa who fought a draw against Rosenbloom not long ago, took out one round, the third when he staggered Actis slightly with a right hand punch. He failed, however, to follow up the advantage.

Actis came out fast for the next round and chased Miler across the ring seeking an opening. Not until the first minute of the sixth, however, did Actis succeed in landing the solid right hand punch. When he did the fight was over.

LINDBERGH IDENTIFIED MAN'S VOICE

that called to Dr. Condon in St. Raymond's cemetery?"

"Yes."

"Whose voice was it?"

Lindbergh had been sitting with his legs crossed. He lifted his right leg and put both feet flat on the floor. Then he came forward in his chair with a quick motion, placed both elbows on his arms and for the first time in this courtroom stared down at Hauptmann's eyes.

The prisoner stared back and for perhaps two seconds these two blue eyed men of the northern races looked at each other without blinking. And then, as calmly as if he were announcing that the weather had turned cold, Lindbergh said:

"It was Hauptmann's voice," BELIEVES HIM GUILTY

When cross examination started Lindbergh made his accusation against Hauptmann even stronger.

"Where did you hear Hauptmann's voice again — after you heard it in the cemetery?"

"At the office of District Attorney Foley in the Bronx."

"After the arrest?"

"Yes."

Until Monday that testimony will be the supreme blow of the prosecution. Now it was time for Edward J. Reilly, the bluff, red faced defense counsel, to start cross examination and demonstrate the technique that has enabled him to win freedom for clients in 2000 Brooklyn homicide cases.

Reilly proceeded to the cross examination and his questions revealed for the first time the line of defense that will be followed in the attempt to save Hauptmann's life. Proceeding on the theory that Hauptmann was at his New York home the night the child was kidnapped, defense lawyers will try to throw the blame on anybody else they can find.

They will try to prove that one of two things happened:

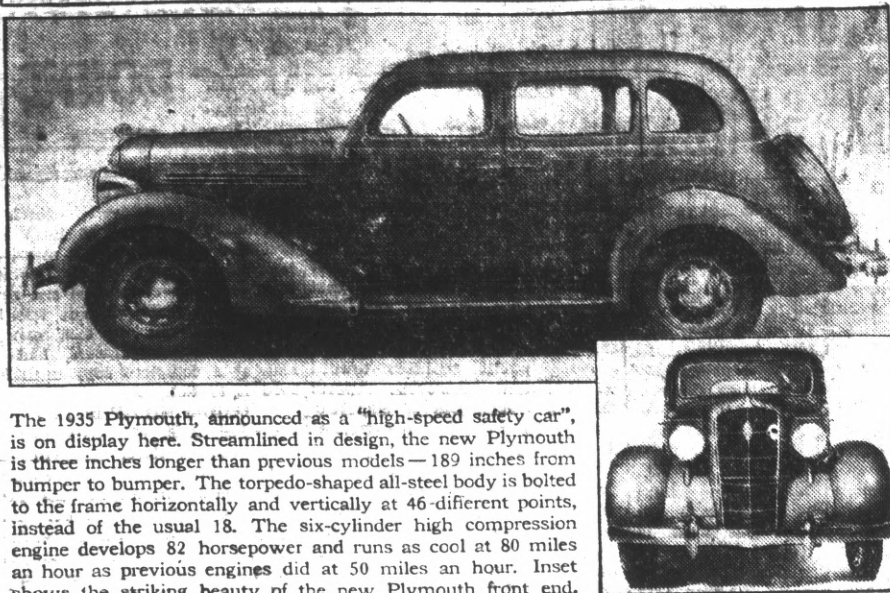

1.—That somebody slipped in the front door of the Lindbergh home and carried the child down the stairs and out the front door again. They will ignore the fact that the ladder was found outside the nursery window, or try to prove:

2.—That somebody handed the baby out of his crib and that neither Hauptmann nor anybody else actually entered the room after climbing the ladder; that instead they stayed outside and received the baby from somebody inside the nursery.

Most of the day Reilly hammered away at the reputations of the Lindbergh servants and of Dr. Condon. Never did he make any direct accusations against any of them, and never did he get any admission from Lindbergh that he suspected any person in his employ of being involved in the crime.

NEW "HIGH-SPEED SAFETY" PLYMOUTH

The 1935 Plymouth, announced as a "high-speed safety car", is on display here. Streamlined in design, the new Plymouth is three inches longer than previous models—189 inches from bumper to bumper. The torpedo-shaped all-steel body is bolted to the frame horizontally and vertically at 46 different points, instead of the usual 18. The six-cylinder high compression engine develops 82 horsepower and runs as cool as 80 miles an hour as previous engines did at 50 miles an hour. Inset shows the striking beauty of the new Plymouth front end.

Six Beautiful Body Styles Shown Here

Walter P. Chrysler today announced the 1935 Plymouth as "revolutionary new type high speed safety cars, expressly designed to meet modern traffic conditions." The cars will be on display at the salesrooms of the Curry Auto Sales Company, 1400 Macdonald avenue; George V. Arth & Son, Dodge dealer, 255 Sixteenth street and A. R. Wagoner, De Soto dealer, 1221 Macdonald avenue.

Introduced in six beautiful body types the new Plymouths, streamlined in design, have added engineering developments which to day more than ever before gives emphasis to its claim of being "America's best engineered low price car."

To quickly catalog the outstanding features of the new car the 1935 Plymouth has an 82 horsepower engine with a compression ratio of 6.7 to 1; a torpedo-type all-steel safety body; synchro-silent transmission; a new "ride" achieved by a redistribution of weight, plus a new front spring assembly, "floating power" engine mountings and hydraulic brakes.

Chrysler, in announcing the new Plymouth, said that it was created to satisfy a critical need in America at the present time for safer transportation.

"Every indication points to more automobiles on the streets and highways in 1935, than at any time since 1929," he said. "And the automobiles of today are much faster than those of six years ago. They also must be safer."

BRAKES IMPROVED

Plymouth's hydraulic brakes have been improved this year by changing the size of the wheel cylinder pistons so that the pistons operating on the rear shoes of each wheel are larger than the piston actuating the front shoe. This equalizes the wear on the facings and provides much longer life to these parts. The new Plymouth has centrifuge brake drums that combine the light weight and strength of steel with the ideal braking characteristics of cast iron.

ENGINE DEVELOPMENTS

Scoble Final Rites Held By Local Masons

With members of McKinley lodge of Masons in charge, funeral services were held at 7 o'clock last evening from the Wilson and Kratzner chapel for the late Bert Scoble, pioneer Richmond man. Rev. A. J. Case officiated at the rites and the body was sent to Grass Valley for burial.

Scoble came to Richmond 10 years ago. He was a native of England and at one time was a foreman at the Standard Oil refinery. Later he left to become an insurance agent. Scoble was active in Masonic circles. He was at one time master of McKinley lodge and was later elected secretary. He was also a member of the Royal Arch Masons, the Knights Templar and was past patron of Acantha Chapter, Order of Eastern Star.

He leaves his brothers and sisters, W. H. Scoble of Santa Ana; J. H. Scoble of England and Emily and Mary Scoble, all of England.

WALL STREET IS UNCERTAIN OVER F. D. TALK

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—(UP)—Wall Street found it difficult to guide a President Roosevelt's message.

Some groups expected something to be said about the railroads. When the President mentioned that one of the fundamental problems was consolidation of federal regulatory administration over all forms of transportation, those groups started to hush. But it was short lived.

Professionals still are hesitant. Proposals for extending work relief and abolishing any idea of a dole were disconcerting to some. They wondered just how much more money is to be expended, whether there are any inflationary measures possible to increase the money supply.

Old time traders awaited further messages, particularly the budget.

IS UNCERTAIN

Wall Street isn't pessimistic about the speech but it is uncertain. There is no indication of any trading pickup yet.

Uncertainty continues to suffer. The President's reference to restoration of "sound conditions" in the public utilities field through abolition of holding companies caused a flurry of study. A financial news service said the President's spoken address differed slightly from the printed copy inasmuch as it said "more sound conditions" and abolition of "levels of the holding companies."

RULING MADE

Meanwhile the slum clearance program, one of the chief features of the building act, stumbled some when a Louisville Federal judge ruled the government had no right to institute condemnation proceedings for such a program.

But if the stock market is uncertain, commodities are coming more and more to the fore. The New York produce exchange today announced abolition of its securities division on or before February 28 to give greater trading opportunity to commodities.

Hop Prices Will Be Governed By Control Board

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—(UP)—Proposals to stabilize the California, Oregon and Washington hop industry through establishment of minimum prices, crop leveling provisions and election of a grower-dealer control board to handle surplus and carryover, were discussed today by regional headquarters of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

Details of the program, contained in an AAA marketing agreement, will be discussed fully by industry leaders at meetings in Santa Rosa, January 16; Salem, Ore., January 21 and Yakima, Wash. January 24.

Under the plan, the control board would be made up of 11 members, seven growers and four dealers, and would issue grower certificates, designating saleable percentage of each grower's crop. California would elect two grower members to the board, Washington two and Oregon three. One dealer member would be elected from California, one from Washington and two from Oregon.

DEFEAT IS FOLLOWED BY MULTIPLICITY OF TROUBLE

INSTALLMENT FORTY-TWO

The day after election I went down to headquarters and there was a meeting of over a hundred of our active workers. I had never attended a more enthusiastic gathering during the campaign. Every body agreed that we had won a victory and that we were going on.

SUGGESTS FUTURE PLANS

Next day I wrote an editorial for the new issue of the "EPIC" newsmagazine. I pointed out that Abraham Lincoln's movement to end slavery began in 1860, but the unemployed at productive and lost the election in 1860 and won in 1868. I pointed out that under the law we had the right to elect a man to the office of president and that we were going on.

I continued my work upon the magazine while my wife and I went to a picture show. I told her to take my place and I went to a picture show. I told her to take my place and I went to a picture show.

I pointed out also that we can make a start at production for use, independently of Merriam and his machine. "There are $25,000,000 in Washington available for land colonies, and our committee will proceed immediately to find out upon what terms we can get our share of this money. Also, the Federal relief authorities are granting funds for cooperative production, and our people must form self-help groups along the line of the Ohio Plan and get to work immediately."

This statement went into detail as to various plans and measures. Having completed it, I thought I had done my duty, and announced my retirement to write this book. I had my telephone number changed, and kept the new one secret. I told my secretaries to open my letters, and answer them as best they could, every mail was bringing ten pounds of letters to my home, to say nothing of the mail pouring into headquarters and the endless stream of people who wanted to see me. I padlocked the garden gate, and brought a stenographer inside, and set to work.

I stayed there for thirty days, and this is what happened during the interim:

IRRITATIONS BREAK LOOSE

First, the personal irritations which had been pent up during the campaign broke loose at headquarters. The editor of the "EPIC News" who had had from the beginning the unquestioned right to publish what he pleased, now decided that he must have control of the business end of the paper. The business manager of the paper backed him up, and the Board of Directors of the End Poverty League removed the business manager; where upon he and the editor rushed down stairs and summoned all the headquarters workers to a tumultuous mass meeting, and turned our internal troubles over to the enemy press. Both sides began wailing me up late at night and early in the morning with special delivery letters and telegrams.

FRENCH AGREE TO IL DUCE'S AFRICA POLICY

PARIS, Jan. 4.—(UP)—

France has agreed in principle to Italian territorial expansion in North Africa. French colonial experts told the United Press.

The tentative agreement includes an understanding that Italy may take action she may wish against Abyssinia, which has been blocking the Italian program, and that Italy will cooperate with France in central European affairs.

The experts said Premier Benito Mussolini can find an outlet for imperialist energies in Abyssinia for more profitably than following his present policy of seeking prestige in central Europe.

Consequently, from the French point of view, Il Duce can afford to reject Hungary's placate France and the Little Entente if convinced she will meet no interference from these powers in Abyssinia, where the border dispute recently has taken scores of lives and brought an Abyssinian appeal to the League of Nations.

Dispatches from French Somaliland confirm rumors that Italy in recent months has landed huge supplies of war material, tanks and airplanes in Ethiopia and Italian Somaliland.

Officials of a foreign study call it recently at Mogadishu that they saw tanks, guns and cages of mammals landed at the wharf from an Italian steamer. French merchants who visited Mogadishu in Ethiopia related similar tales of military preparations on a large scale, asserting that the size of the Italian force at Mogadishu is surprising. They say Italy both in Somaliland and Ethiopia ferociously is building strategic roads to the frontier with the aid of natives.

The dispatches add that both Eritrea on the Red Sea and Italian Somaliland now virtually have become closed territories to foreigners, only Italians and official missions being allowed to enter; under strict orders not to divulge any military activities they may witness.

Mrs. JEANNE EAKLE, popular local girl, has moved to Martinez to make her home. She will become a member of the District Attorney's office.

Graduate Nurses To Elect Officers

The Graduate Nurses of Contra Costa county are urged to attend a meeting Tuesday January 8th, 1935, 8:00 P. M. at County Hospital Nurses Home, Martinez. This meeting is for the election of officers for the ensuing year. Miss Anna C. Janine, from headquarters, plans to attend.

Following the installation a program was presented by a men's glee club of Crockett. Cards and dancing were enjoyed. Music was furnished by Marcey's orchestra.

Mrs. Faust, Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Amy Pearson were on the committee in charge of all arrangements.

MISS EARHART MAY MAKE HOP ACROSS OCEAN

HONOLULU, T. H., Jan. 4 — UP— If Amelia Earhart attempts an airplane flight from the Hawaiian Islands to San Francisco it will be for her own satisfaction, and not to defeat the Jones-Costigan bill before Congress, her husband, George Palmer Putnam said in a statement to the United Press today.

He was commenting in behalf of his wife on an article published in the San Francisco News. The article said that Miss Earhart was to receive $10,000 for the flight, which, according to the News, had been arranged by a publicity organization which desired to focus attention upon Hawaii as a background for a campaign against legislation distasteful to Hawaiian sugar planters.

Putnam admitted that Miss Earhart received suggestions from a member of the publicity organization that she visit Honolulu.

"At that time Miss Earhart was considering a flight to South America," he said. "In the course of the conversations this developed, wherefore it was suggested that she bring her plane to Honolulu and attempt a flight to the mainland."

"Absolutely no commitment definitely to undertake the flight ever was made. Miss Earhart consistently refused to pledge herself in advance concerning projects of this kind."

"Neither Miss Earhart nor myself have any connection or interest in any sugar or political situation affecting Hawaii."

"Miss Earhart, however, always a free agent. She never committed herself to make a flight to the mainland and whether she now attempts one depends entirely on many circumstances. But if she does it will be entirely for her own satisfaction, and without any strings attached. She feels it is desirable for women to attempt pioneering feats whether or not they have a scientific value."

"It is entirely agreeable with her if her present activities are ignored."

YOUR GOOD HEALTH

By C. N. CHRISMAN, M.D.

Best Wish for the New Year Is Abounding Good Health and a Cheerful Outlook

MY WISH for my readers for 1935 is 365 days of abounding good health. I do not believe I could wish a greater boon to each of you. No one can appreciate good health as well as those who do not possess it. I might wish you many years of life, but that without good health is not much of a blessing. We may wish to live long, but with ill health a few years seem longer.

You may say, "What would the doctor do if everybody were well?" Sometimes, I think my best-paying and most grateful patients are among those whom I have succeeded in keeping well.

A few days ago a young mother brought in her good dancing, bright-eyed, happy seven-year-old daughter. I wanted to know what the trouble was.

"Nothing in the world," was the answer I got. "I just wanted you to see what a happy healthy baby we have, and make you feel proud."

"Why?" I said. "I had nothing to do with it; she has never been sick except with measles and chicken pox, and I just advised how to take care of her."

"Yes," she said, "that is the story of her whole life. You told me what to do to keep her well."

Then she went on, "My whole life was one of sickness and ill health. You became my doctor when I was ten years old. I remember what you told my father, and I honestly believe that if my father had done what you told him to, he could have been a healthy child. I feared to have a child, because I did not want it to suffer as I did. I asked your advice. You said 'You have only one hereditary taint, which can be overcome by careful care.' So, I brought my daughter in on her seventh birthday to show you that you were right. You did not prescribe drugs. You only told me what to do to keep her well. The greatest pleasure in my life is seeing her exuberant good health and it makes my suffering less."

I think I am well paid for this lack of sickness, don't you? What are the secrets of good health? There are no such secrets. There are principles and you can see them all around you. The running, shouting, group of children, who play so hard that when meal time comes they race in and eat what is set before them; that is, if they are not told, "Now don't eat that, it isn't good for you."

"Eat this, this is what makes little boys grow." Oh, your face and neck are dirty. Go and wash before you can eat a bite!"

The youngster does what he is forced to do and sits down sullen and cross; he eats because he is hungry, but by mental state is interfered with and if this is kept up long enough, he is destined for a period of ill health which may last a lifetime.

WHAT makes good health? Well, a happy disposition helps a lot. You say, "How can we be happy when work is so scarce and all we have saved is gone?" Well, when you started in business, or trade, or factory, or profession, you had mighty little and you got along and were happy.

Happiness can still be had if you will determine to do with what you have. If you can't have what you want, remember others have less. Dandelion greens and salt pork are good when you are hungry. The depression cannot keep you from getting an abundance of fresh air, sunshine, and exercise.

You say that you can't eat them. No, but if you get enough of them, you will be able to eat many things that you would not eat without them. It would do us all good if we copied an advertisement now appearing in popular magazines and took a big bone with a little meat sticking to it, and would grin at it till it was smooth and clean.

It might not be good manners, but it would help your teeth to stay in, keep your gums solid, and healthy, start the saliva flowing freely, and make the gastric juice pour out so that you could digest everything. If we sit and mope because we cannot have what we want we shall not be able to digest what we want when we get it. Do something for somebody. Exercise, fresh air, and sunshine can all be shared. Good cheer will help to bring good health and happiness.

Guide to Charm

MEN SECRETLY LIKE COSMETICS IF NICELY USED

By JACQUELINE HUNT

MEN may kid you for using make-up, and when you use it skillfully they are delighted. But most men, while they are modest about expressing opinions on the subject, have very definite ideas about how and when cosmetics should be used and upon other details of feminine grooming.

The first thing men look for in a woman is naturalness, yet men wholeheartedly approve of the use of cosmetics. You see, rouge, a perfectly matched powder and lipstick skillfully used really give you the natural bloom of health. When questioned, most men declare that they hate eye make-up because it makes a woman look artificial. But, I wonder about this.

If you are skillful at using your mascara and eyebrow pencil, and if you use a subtle shading of eye shadow for special occasions, I suspect that it is the smudgy, heavily beaded lashes and too-dark eyebrows that men have in mind when they say they disapprove of eye make-up—and I hope few women of today make such mistakes.

What do men notice about a woman first of all? Here are the details in the order of their importance, and I think we should profit by paying attention to them: good complexion comes first, and after it a good figure, good teeth, nice hair, good clothes, pretty hands and pretty feet. You cannot hold your man by appearing in a new costume every time you have a date, you see. Clothes come fifth in importance.

A good complexion is within the reach of every woman, but it may take work and often it requires a certain amount of self-denial if there are blemishes to be cleared up.

A good figure is also within the reach of most women. Men say they prefer slender women (as opposed to fat), but on closer questioning most of them admit they like a few curves here and there. Exercise will keep away excess fat, will build up the body that is too slender and will keep your curves where you want them.

Men like pretty teeth, or at least teeth that do not show signs of neglect, and certainly this is not too much to expect of any woman. Good grooming includes mouth hygiene just as surely as it does well-cared-for hands or a smart costume. Visit your dentist frequently, brush your teeth twice daily and use a mouth wash after each meal.

Next on our list comes pretty hair, but there is a lot to be said on this subject, and we will save it until tomorrow's column.

QUESTION: "I am twenty years old now, and ever since I was about sixteen I have had considerable trouble with my face. I cannot seem to keep away the blackheads, and I have yellowish pimples that break out one by one. Please tell me something to do about it—Herman."

It is possible that shaving tends to spread the infection from one part of your face to another. Try shaving every two or three days and in the meantime cleanse your skin thoroughly by holding a washcloth dipped in hot water over your face to soften the pore deposits. Then work up a lather of good soap and scrub thoroughly. Rinse in warm water to which an antiseptic has been added. Now use a comedone extractor to remove any softened blackheads. Open any pimples with a sterilized needle and take up the contents on cotton moistened with alcohol. Use fresh cotton and touch any opened pimples with more alcohol or antiseptic. Then rinse the skin in very cold water. You will find additional information in my leaflet on this subject. If you would care to send for it.

New Year's Eve Best Chance For the Elaborate Parties

By JUDITH WILSON

NEW YEAR'S EVE is the nicest time of all the year for the young people to entertain. Make it a big party and have dancing as the main feature of the evening. If you wish you might have some of the other mothers join in giving the party and share the work and the expense.

Make the whole thing as gay and festive as you can. Use the nicest linens, the nicest silver, and have the nicest cook among your friends contribute to the supper. And make your table decorations special. Use lots of white for New Year's.

Have a large modernistic mirror form the foundation of the centerpiece. If you wish you can build little drifts of cotton and artificial snow around it and place miniature skaters on the mirror or you can build in the center a pyramid of silver and glistening blue Christmas tree balls. Keep your other decorations in line with those of your table. Hide away all the remnants of your Christmas decorations, except perhaps a sprig of mistletoe here and there, and white and silver candles.

Serve the dinner just before midnight and distribute the usual gay noisemakers and pretty hats for the young people to greet the New Year.

New Year's Day should belong to the grown-ups. Preferably an afternoon party around an open fire with punch passed freely and with big pieces of fruit cake. Keep your punch bowl brimming and let the guests serve themselves. Sing your old songs, tell your old stories and enjoy the thrill of friendly faces that come and go.

Egg Nog

In a large bowl put two cups sugar, one cup Jamaica rum, one-half cup brandy and two cups whiskey. Let stand for several hours. Beat the yolks of nine eggs and stir the sugar and liquor slowly into them. Have two quarts of plain vanilla ice cream. Just before serving add the ice cream to the egg mixture, stirring vigorously until all lumps disappear. Serve in small cups or footed glasses. This will make enough for twenty.

If you are ambitious enough you might have a N. Y. Year's

You and Your Child

BRIBE BACK OF CHILD'S ARDOR TO RUN ERRAND

By JANE HERBERT GOWARD

MRS. NEIGHBOR has no children of her own, so when it is inconvenient for her to go to the corner store for matches, salt or bread, she borrows Willie next door. Willie is always handy, for being not quite five he does not have to go to school. And he is always more than willing to go to the store for her. Doesn't she always give him a cent?

Willie is not mercenary. But a cent is a cent. It will buy a pencil or a piece of candy. And if one is careful and saves—well! Willie often has thought of the lovely things which one could buy if one had the money. This to be sure is the stuff of which dreams are made. It is not for "real" living. Willie lives in the moment, spending his pennies as fast as he earns them.

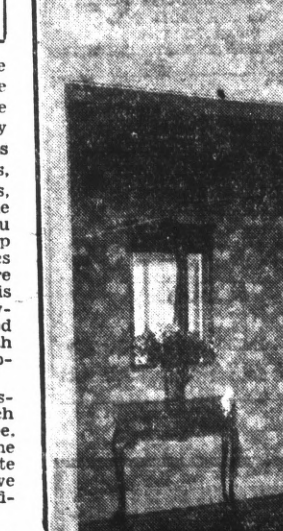

Of late, Willie has developed the habit of calling on Mrs. Neighbor three or four times a day to ask, "Do you want me to go to the store now?" The first few times this happened, Mrs. Neighbor told Willie's mother and both laughed.

Willie's mother has ceased to be amused, however. And Mrs. Neighbor is running her own errands now. A sort of feud exists between both women, ever since Willie's mother made the request: "I must ask you not to give him any more pennies."

Willie's mother has asked me to discuss this situation. Briefly, where a child is concerned a reward becomes a matter of precedent whether tendered by parent or neighbor. A child who is in the habit of being rewarded for running errands or doing other small favors, expects to be rewarded.

We should train our children to run errands as a matter of courtesy. This means that we must accept their willingness to serve us, as a favor. An occasional unexpected treat will prove that it pays to be polite and helpful.

A stranger has no right to ask such favors from anyone, adult or child. Mrs. Neighbor obviously assumed that Willie was working for her. And Willie proved that the arrangement was acceptable to him by accepting the pennies. It was a private matter. Of course mother had a right to interfere if she objected to Willie's having pennies or working.

MODERN WOMEN

By MARIAN MAYS MARTIN

She's Worried Because Her Girl Chum Has Dates With Men Behind Her Husband's Back

WHAT are friends for? Not surely to be turned into liars and cheats. Pulling chestnuts out of the fire for silly women is not apt to be a very remunerative business.

They invariably make you pay a high price for the privilege. "My dear Mrs. Martin: I have a girl friend who is having dates with men, although she has a very good husband. Now I am very fond of her and we have always gone around a good deal together. I really feel sure that there is no real harm in these lunches and dates, nevertheless I do not like to become mixed up with her affair, and I am bound to be, since she often tells her husband that she has been with me, or has a date with me. She also frequently includes me in her dates in order to make it appear as though the man was my friend. I have told her how I feel, but she doesn't seem to pay any attention to my objections and goes right on using me. I really am very distressed over it and have threatened to tell her husband. Sooner or later we are going to get into a mess. Her husband must think that I am dragging his wife around if these men are my friends. What shall I do? Tell her husband, or what?"—Old Friend."

NO. DON'T tell her husband. Tell her once and for all that you will not supply any alibi and that you positively will not make a third at these rendezvous. It is because you have said "No" and gone right on falling into her schemes that she continues to rely on you. If you say "No," mean it and stick to it. Have another engagement, be out, or make any excuse you like, since you seem to lack the courage to take a definite stand.

You could cure her for once and all by being so attractive that she would consider you a dangerous rival. Married women who play around with men are usually vain. They may be relied upon to resent any intrusion or counter-attraction. Usually, such women pal around with girls less attractive than themselves—a woman's trick, anyway—and if this should be the case you are very silly to subject yourself to any comparison unfavorable to yourself.

Since you admit being fond of this girl, see what you can do to circumvent her schemes, rather than falling in with them. She needs someone to keep her from making an absolute idiot of herself.

PROBABLY she doesn't mean any harm and is actuated by vanity and a love of excitement. If this is the case she should be made to realize that she may be called upon to pay a big price, plus a heavy tax, for the gratification of her silly whims.

It's bad enough for a married woman to go about with a man she is in love with—or fancies she is—for in that case she probably feels that the world's well-being is at stake. But to jeopardize her position and peace of mind and the happiness of a good man for vanity, well—it's not very sensible or very noble, is it? What do you think?

If your friend knows anything at all she knows that men who trail around after married women are not doing it for their health. For the man it's not a very healthy pursuit and rather an empty one, unless he is playing for high stakes. There are certainly enough attractive girls in the world, without men having to play around with married women.

You are quite right about thinking that sooner or later you will be caught in a mess if you continue to be a catspaw for your friend. Better get out from under. What's the matter with acquiring a boy friend yourself and having a few dates on your own? An inferiority complex seems to be your trouble. Go after one of her pet admirers, and you won't have to worry about refusing her invitation to make a threesome.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum, and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling in your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It flat digests in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned. It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. That's not ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Refuse a substitute. 25c at drug stores. ©1931 C. M. Co.

FRIEND CALLED

Burnett declared that after he had cleaned up the rooms, he went to the home of a neighbor to interview Mrs. Edith Sparke, wife of the accused man. On his return, he said, he met Sparke approaching his residence.

Richard McCarthy testified that Sparke had dinner at his home about 5:30 that evening. As soon as the meal was finished, McCarthy said, he went to bed. Shortly afterwards, he said, his wife called him and said that Sparke's home was afire.

Herbert Collis, another witness was absent. However, a transcript of his testimony was read. Collis resides with his uncle, Richard McCarthy and was present at the dinner on December 11. Collis declared that after Sparke left he went to take a bath and when he looked out the window discovered the fire at the Sparke home. He said he looked at his watch and noted it was 5:50 P. M.

HELD POLICIES

Although insurance adjusters were absent at the hearing, it was brought out that the following policies were held by Sparke: one policy for $1000 on furniture; one for $3000 on the house and a $250 policy on the garage. The policies had been renewed December 1, 1934 for a period of three years.

COMPANY RELEASED

It was stipulated that Sparke had released the insurance company from all liability in the case.

The explanation given for this action by Sparke was that in the position he holds he is under $50,000 bond and for the amount of damage done by the fire, around $250, he did not care to jeopardize his job for that amount and be subjected to unwelcome notoriety.

HAS LIQUID ASSETS

It also developed that Sparke is the possessor of liquid assets greatly in excess of the amount of insurance on the premises, indicating a lack of motive for the commission of such an offense.

CASE IS WEAK

The prosecution was handled by Chief Deputy District Attorney T. S. Calfee, assisted by Homer Patterson who will be the Richmond representative of the District Attorney's office after January 1st, and upon whom will devolve the duty to prosecute Sparke. The defendant was represented by Attorney Robert Collins, who during the course of the preliminary examination inquired of the prosecution on what evidence it proposed to prosecute the case in the Superior Court. Calfee admitted that any evidence connecting Sparke with the alleged crime was very weak. Judge Thompson, however, ruled there was probable cause shown sufficient to bind over the defendant for trial, and did so under $1,000 bond.

Chevrolet Announces Two New Lines for 1935

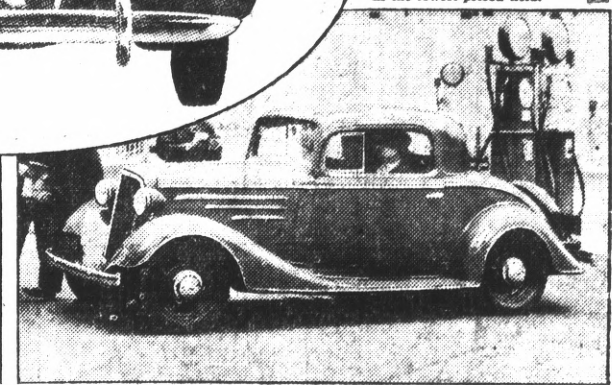

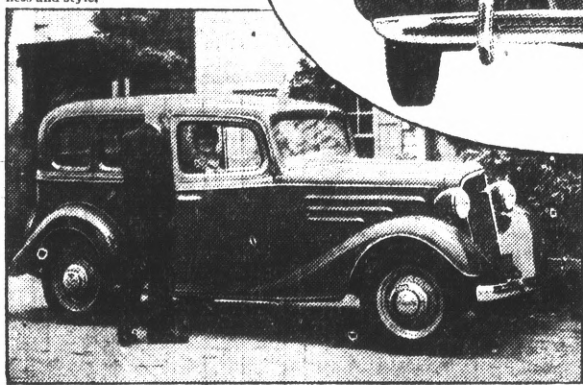

The Coupe model typifies the beauty and style of Chevrolet's New Master De Luxe series for 1935. Improved performance and exceptional economy also characterize these cars.

Fleet, graceful lines also mark the New Master De Luxe Sport Sedan. Ample luggage space is provided by the built-in trunk, and a luggage compartment behind the rear seat cushions.

MILLIONS ARE SPENT BY CAL. ON HIGHWAYS BY OFFICIAL

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 4.—UP—More than $60,000,000 will be spent on California's highways during the 1935-37 biennium, if the legislature approves a budget completed today by the department of public works.

Earl Lee Kelly announced after a meeting with Governor Merriam and Finance Director A. S. Stockburger, that the new budget proposed expenditures of $27,000,000 for new construction, $17,215,000 for maintenance and snow removal, $6,000,000 to be returned to cities as their share of the gas tax, and $2,400,000 for engineering.

The necessary funds will be obtained as follows: An estimated $16,000,000 from the gas tax, $9,500,000 from Federal aid and the balance from license fees.

Four outstanding projects are listed in the budget. They include building approaches to the San Francisco-Oakland bay bridge, $3,300,000, to be completed by the summer of 1936; approaches to the Golden Gate bridge, $1,000,000, also to be completed in 1936. Completing the San Simon-Carmel section of the Roosevelt highway, $1,600,000 and $792,000 for completion of the Feather river canyon road. The latter two projects also will be completed in the summer of 1936.

CHEVROLET SIX PRICES TOLD BY OFFICIAL

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Prices on the new 1935 line of Chevrolet cars were announced here today by William E. Holler, general sales manager of the company.

Prices on the new 1935 standard line of cars are: Coupe, $475; Coach, $485; Sedan, $550; Phaeton, $595; Sport Roadster, $465; and Sedan Delivery, $445.

Prices on the new 1935 Master De Luxe line of cars are: Coupe, $560; Coach, $580; Sedan, $610; Sport Coupe, $600; Town Sedan, $675; and Sedan Delivery, $650.

Prices on standard Coupe, Coach and Phaeton, it was pointed out in the announcement show a decrease of ten dollars under corresponding models in the 1934 lines.

Prices on the Master De Luxe models remain exactly the same as in 1934. Kneecap action continues as one of the outstanding features of the new master De Luxe cars.

Holler stated, and it is available to any customer on order and at slight additional cost. The new Master De Luxe cars also feature the new Fisher turret top all-steel roof construction and a much larger body with corresponding increase in interior dimensions.

"Chevrolet was able to reduce its standard model prices and to maintain its price levels in the face of substantially increased material and manufacturing costs on the Master De Luxe series because of the greatly increased volume scheduled for 1935, as indicated by the thousands of orders we now have on hand for the immediate delivery of the 1935 lines of cars from our organization of 10,000 dealers," Holler said in his price announcement.

The new Chevrolet models will be on exhibition today at the C. C. Claar Chevrolet Sales and Service Agency, 480 Twenty-third street.

DENIAL MADE OF GANGSTER FRIENDSHIPS

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—UP—Denial that he had ever seen George "Baby Face" Nelson, or that he knew that John Paul Chase was a confederate of the late public enemy, Arthur Pratt today was brought before United States Commissioner Ernest E. Williams to face Mann act violation charges.

The hearing was continued to Thursday at the request of U. S. District Attorney A. J. Zerkow. Pratt was held under $25,000 bail. He is charged with taking Laura Stillwater from San Francisco to Monterey and New York. Pratt claimed they intended to be married.

The Mann act charge, reportedly was filed against Pratt, pending action by a federal grand jury Tuesday on the operation charges of harboring Chase shortly before the latter was captured at Mt. Shasta. City court authorities maintain that Chase is "absolutely crossed" then, tipping Chase in time to permit him to escape being set for him in Helmsville.

"I know Chase, but didn't know he was associated with gangsters," Pratt declared today. "I wouldn't have had anything to do with him if I had known that. I thought he was just a bootlegger."

rites here today

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from the Ryan funeral home for Mike Kontsumpos, 58, retired Southern Pacific worker. The Greek Orthodox service will be held and interment will be in Sunset View cemetery.

YOUR CHANCE

There are some 25,000,000 automobiles traversing the roads of the nation, 25,000,000 potential sources of death and damage. While we ignore the appalling statistics showing that chance of death or injury is about one in 25, the danger is ever imminent. An epidemic taking a toll of hundreds of thousands of lives would result in immediate action, for the automobile threatens to eat up the whole and pestilence with it, as it affected this land.

THE REMEDY

What is the remedy? It is hard to say, for these states which have strict responsibility laws show a reduction in the number of accidents. These laws forbid persons who have been involved in serious accidents to drive until they pay the judgment against them and prove their ability to meet any future public liability claims. We have a law very much along the same lines in this state but it seems to lack teeth and has done nothing appreciable in cutting down accidents.

The highways are adequately patrolled and the men engaged in such work are under instructions to strictly enforce the law, yet the toll mounts yearly.

Horrible Fate Feared For Men In Sea Collision

HAVANA, Jan. 4.—UP—The Spanish captain and six members of the crew of the schooner Julian Benzochea were missing tonight, following a collision with a "sea train" freighter departing from Havana for New Orleans.

The schooner's cargo of fresh fish quickly attracted sharks and survivors doubted any of the seven missing could escape death even if they managed to keep afloat. A rescuer said he heard a man's screams in the darkness but was unable to find him.

The collision occurred three miles off Havana, port police reported.

The four masted schooner, 300 tons, was returning from fishing grounds on the Gulf with a crew of 12. Five survivors were brought into Havana.

or drunken driving. For some inexplicable reason or other, courts seem reluctant to inflict the penalties involved in drunken driving and permit the offender to plead guilty to a lesser offense. As a result this worst of all offenses is not strictly enforced with the deplorable result that there is an increase instead of a diminution of this class of driving. Perhaps some day when public consciousness is awakened to the peril that hovers over every one of us, action will be taken that will at least reduce hazards to some extent and make the highways and streets more safe for travel than now.
